Looping

Through the Year

Because of the long-time tradition of making loops, the yearbook staff made "Looping Through the Year" the theme of the 1984 BEARTRACKS. Highway 84 will always be remembered by the Class of 1984!!!

Dedicated to Rosa Sensintaffer

Because of her dedication and service, Mrs. Rosa Sensintaffer will always be remembered at Block High School.

Mrs. Sensintaffer began her teaching career during the 1941-42 school season at Block. She taught for one year and then was married to James C. Sensintaffer. After his death, she returned to Block in 1952.

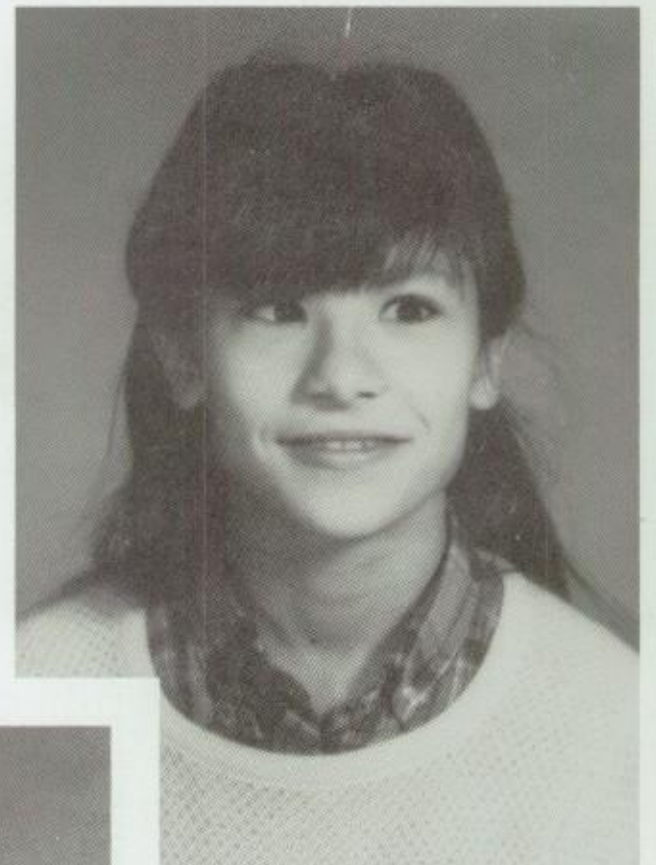

During her teaching career she taught typing, clerical practice, general business, English, reading, shorthand, free enterprise and history.

We would like to thank Mrs. Rosa Sensintaffer for sharing 33 years of her life with Block High School.

In Memory of

*Connie

Jo Ann Reynolds

Connie and Jo Ann with their mother, Kathy Byrnes.

During the school year of 1983-84, Jonesville Junior High School lost two of its students because of a fire. Connie and Jo Ann will be sadly missed.

A SENIOR

Surely a senior wouldn't do this!! Ha! Ha!

Leave it to Carol!!

Wonder what these two are smiling about?

Chris and Arnie seem to be cutting up.

Aww, how sweet.

Traci, thought you were on a diet?

Susan and Gay, or shall I say — the blind leading the blind?

It's easy for a senior to look busy.

The seniors decorated the school.

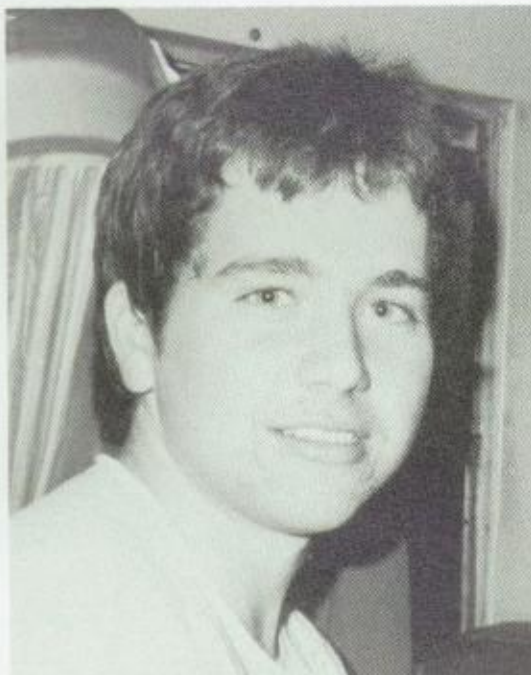

Smiles, smiles, smiles! Bet I know why! Guys? Guys? Guys?

IS A SENIOR

Above: Is it true that seniors are lazy?
Above: The horse looks more excited than Misti!
L: I've never seen such camera hams in my life!

Eric, don't tell me you've hidden that sexy look from us all these years!

Yvette, does it look that bad??

YEAR

One night the seniors toilet papered the school. It would've been real pretty if it hadn't rained. It would've been easier to clean up, too!

Down With

the Old,

"C" Building

No more dripping water or squeaking floors.

Down she goes!!!

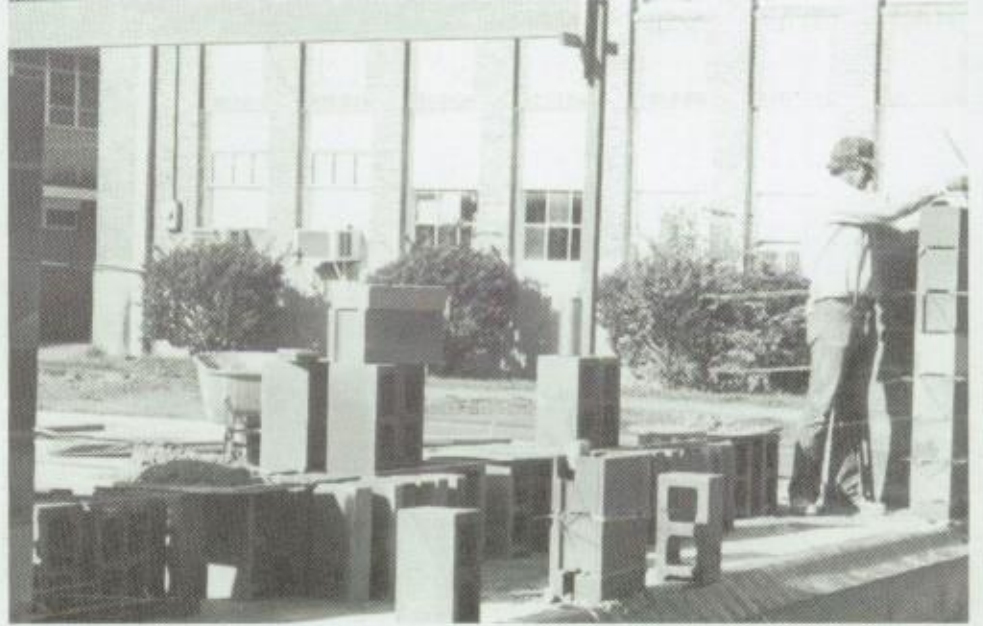

No more hot classrooms!

New! the

With Up

Block High School went through a lot of changes.

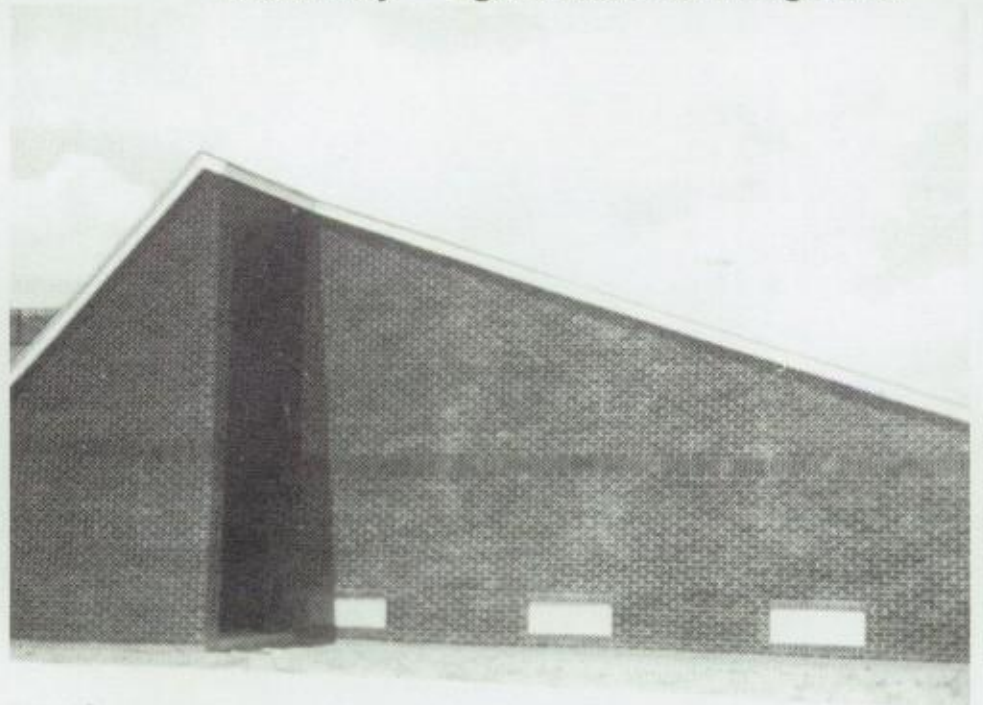

It was muddy.

It was noisy — a good excuse for failing a test!

It was dirty.

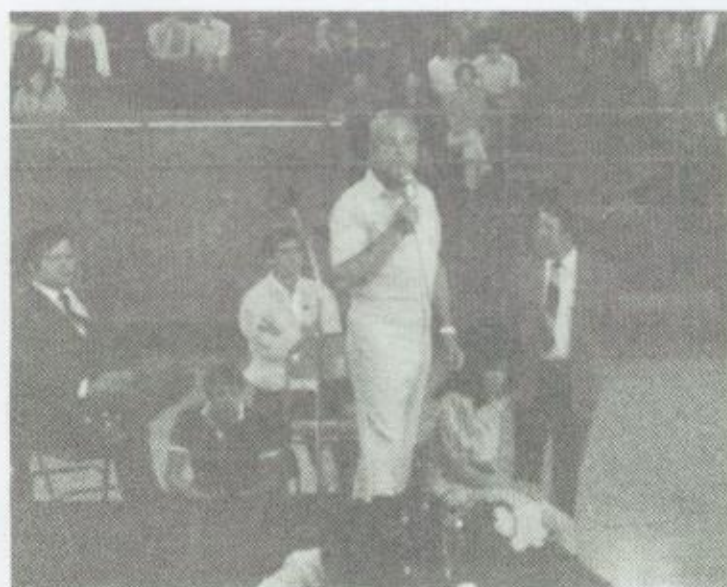

EIGHTY-FOUR

EXCITING YEAR

LOUISIANA HOSTED
THE 1984
WORLD'S FAIR IN NEW ORLEANS

Edwin Edwards was re-elected in 1984 to a third term as governor. He visited the school during his campaign.

Adding to the excitement of '84: BHS lost an old building and gained a new one, an eclipse of the sun occurred that will not occur again for another 35 years, and Jesse Jackson became the first black man to run for President.

Maid of Honor

Susan Havard

Susan was escorted by her father, Henry Havard.

A first for Block High School this year was having two homecoming queens. The queens were Darla Early and Stephanie Riley. Darla was escorted by her uncle, Darry Early, and her crown-bearer was Robert Brown, Jr. Stephanie was escorted by her father, R. B. Riley, and her crown-bearer was Drew Taylor. They were crowned by last year's queen, Shasta Erwin King. The mascots for this year were Micah Nicholson and Tiffany Richardson.

September 30, 1983, a date to be remembered.

J.T. (Julian Thaddeus Springer) tries to make it as an athlete; and, even more importantly, he tries to make it as a person who might interest some girl — any girl! J.T.'s problems begin to upset his homelife; and, in exasperation, his parents exile him to his room. There's nothing for him to do except watch television where he sees a nostalgia program of the Fifties which, to him, seems a much happier time. He decides that he is a fifties personality trapped in the body of a modern teenager. To escape his real world, he creates a make-believe world where he's someone special. Everything is as J.T. wants it, and his fantasy world becomes real to him.

Refreshing the old memory?

Getting pretty?

Having second thoughts?

Making it all possible!!!

Julian and Ann lecture J.T. — again!

Prince and Slick break up Bible study.

Stick 'em up!

J.T. and Julie become more serious.

J.T., Bob, and Ricky — these three are a crowd!

J.T.'s "sweet" little sister, Linda.

Loreen and Delores recite their vows.

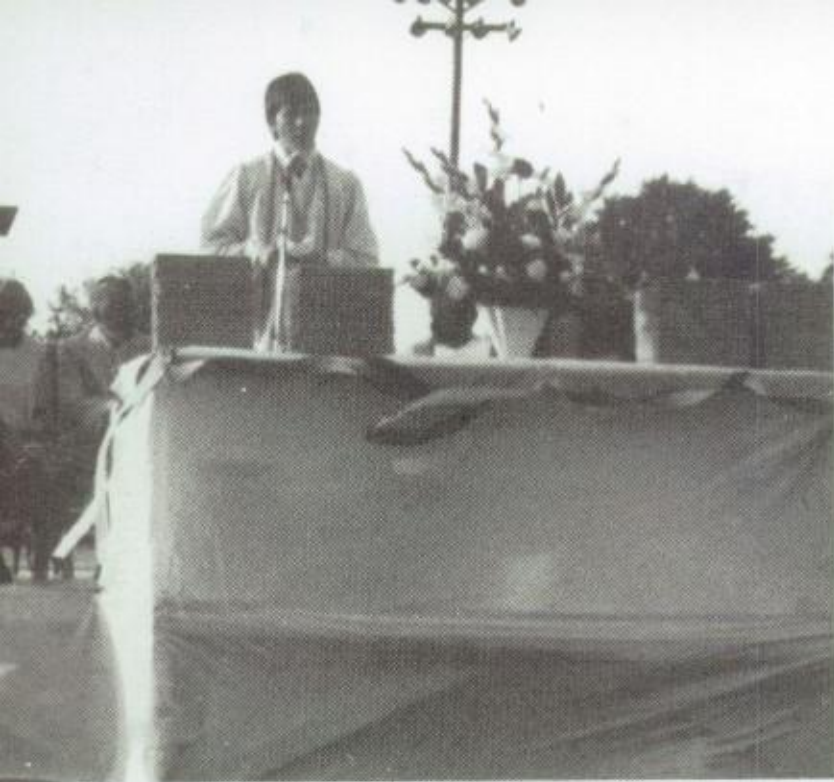

J.T. puts Prince in his place.

Frozie gives J.T. advice.

From all of us, "Thank you, Mrs. Riley!"

Valedictorian

Eric Brooks

To a Waterfowl

Whither, midst falling dew,
While glow the heavens with the last steps of day,
Far, through their rosy depths, dost thou pursue
Thy solitary way?

Vainly the fowler's eye
Might mark thy distant flight to do thee wrong,
As, darkly seen against the crimson sky,
Thy figure floats along.

Seek'st thou the plashy brink
Of weedy lake, or marge of river wide,
Or where the rocking billows rise and sink
On the chafed oceanside?

There is a Power whose care
Teaches thy way along the pathless coast —
The desert and illimitable air —
Lone wandering, but not lost.

All day thy wings have fanned,
At that far height, the cold, thin atmosphere,
Yet stoop not, weary, to the welcome land,
Though the dark night is near.

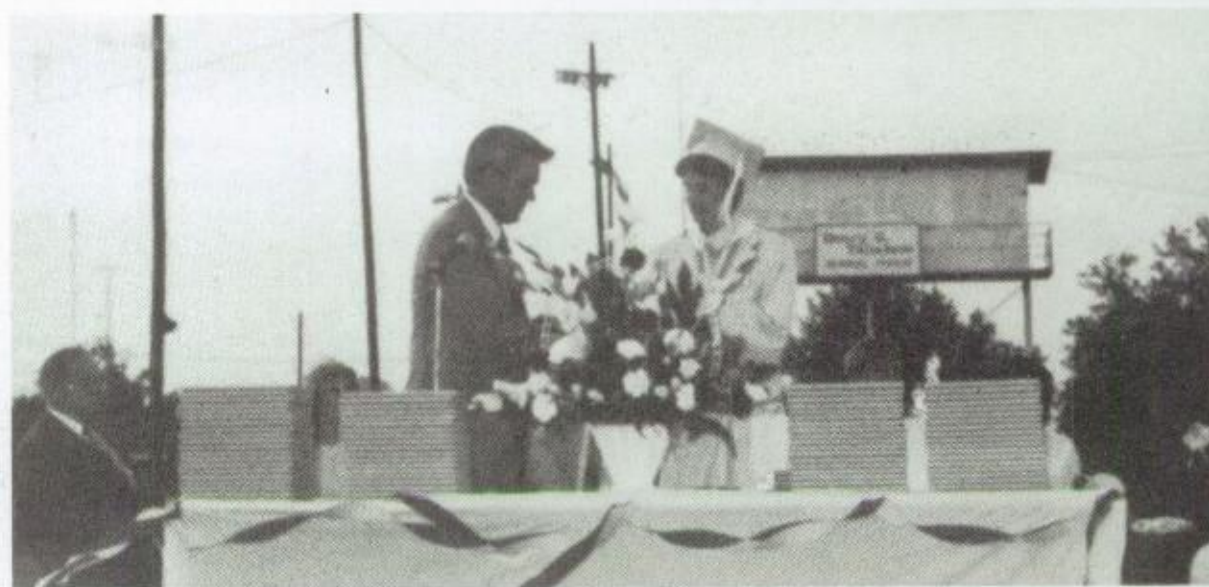

And soon that toil shall end;
Soon shalt thou find a summer home, and rest,
And scream among thy fellows; reeds shall bend,
Soon, o'er thy sheltered nest.

Thou'rt gone, the abyss of heaven
Hath swallowed up thy form; yet, on my heart
Deeply hath sunk the lesson thou hast given,
And shall not soon depart.

He who, from zone to zone,
Guides through the boundless sky thy certain flight,
In the long way that I must tread alone,
Will lead my steps aright.

Salutatorian Rhonda White

Members of the faculty, members of the school board, parents, friends, fellow school mates, we hope you will accept everything we say as meant for each of you and will believe that we are sincere in thanking you for coming out tonight to share the happiness we feel at having reached one of the goals toward which we have been striving all these years.

It is still hard for us to realize that we are the graduates and that this is our commencement.

Of times, it has been said that graduation is not the end, but the beginning, and, of course, this is true. However, this night does mark the end of a certain phase of our lives — a phase which we will always remember. It consisted of years filled with joy, pain, excitement, and happiness.

Although our material possessions may be taken from us, our memories will last forever. We will always remember the years that we spent striving for our graduation.

It is true, though, that this night does mark a beginning — a beginning which will be different for each of us. Some will further their education, and others will enter activities along a different line. Whatever we choose, whatever we accomplish, the education and training that we received in Block High School will always stand us in good stead. For this knowledge, and also for the patience you exercised, we want to thank each of our teachers, and we assure you it is meant earnestly.

We also want to thank our parents for their love and support during these twelve golden years.

Last, but certainly not least, we thank God for allowing us to live in a free land where we can make our own choices. We also thank Him for giving us the strength and courage to endure until the end.

As a representative of the Class of 1984, I want to take this opportunity to assure you that whether we have given evidence of it in the past or not, we do appreciate all each of you has done for us.

1983-84 B.H.S. Marching Band Mr. McCargar, we love ya!

Rex McCargar

Here comes the band!!! 2nd place! Natchitoches Christmas Parade

Kaye, we caught you!! Looks like something more interesting than fire-batons has caught your eye! Bonfire.

Performing to "Coronado." Northwestern Marching Festival

The Block High Band received a rating of 2 at the Northwestern Marching Festival! This called for a "Thank you" to Mr. McCargar.

He was so caring,
Just like a best friend.
Sometimes a little daring,
But always an ear to lend.

There was a time when we thought we were going to lose him.

We prayed every prayer we could think.

But as usual, he pulled through it;

And came back to us telling us we were his strength.

He was not only our band director,
But also a second father.

And we hope you will remember forever,

We do love you, Mr.
McCargar!!!

LOOK AT THESE NUTS!

Where's the beef?

Tonya, how often do you do this?

No wonder Andie talks so much!

It must not be the day for the GIF sign.

Don't ya'll get tired of the same tree every day?

She even eats like a hog.

Denny and Weinke at the Jr. Sr. Banquet.

Odessa, why do you look so happy?

Man, we're bad, we know we're bad!

Ya'll must be guilty with those innocent smiles.

There's a camera, smile!

Come on, fill us in. You're not supposed to keep secrets!

Block High School has stood for over seventy years. It is just like a mother hen protecting her children by doing her best at keeping them warm, safe, and dry. It has been through and seen so much, if only those old walls could talk! That good old school really is something, but it has performed a job well-done and now must move over for the new school.

That old high school is not the only thing leaving; so are we, the Class of 1984. We have been through so much together, just think of the memories: Elementary — very first day of school, taking a quarter to school every day for popcorn and coke, first whipping, playing "house" and kiss chase, and softball tournaments; Junior High — basketball and football games, trying out for cheerleader, basketball tournaments, Mrs. Shively hollering at us in French, and naming the parishes and parish seats in Mr. Poole's room; Block — skipping, getting caught, football and basketball games, homecoming, 50's Day, pep rallies, banquets, Mrs. Riley's handouts, Mr. Aplin's half-full Dr. Peppers, Aggie jokes, and teaching us something new on a test, Coach Wilbert's slamming books together, Coach Bondurant's TGIF sign, and that is not half of it.

We have had a great life together, now we have to live a life of our own. We have to get out from under the mother hen's wing and see what the rest of the world is like. If life was not a challenge, we would not be able to learn, and then life would not be worth living.

We, the Class of 1984, are proud to be the last graduating class of the old Block High School, and hope that we can be just as strong and stand for just as long. Come on good old BHS, it is time for us to leave.

Hang in there — Life's hard,
Stephanie Riley

Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark, and deep,
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.
